*Opening prayer****

Father said: My dear team and spouses, Happy New Year to all of you. The past is in the past. Let us learn from what we experienced last year.

Triland will now read the team watchword for 2019.

ROMANS 15:13 (NIV)

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in Him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Many things have changed from last year to this year. As My Son told you in an email, you seven are now the core that we will build the team upon. Some of you have been with Triland since the start, while others have been added over the years. The fact that YOU remained faithful to Me and Him is what matters.

Many of your hearts were heavy last year. Each meeting bore a little reprimand and chiding to move forward. I do not feel that will be needed at this time. All of you know what is expected of you. Please fulfill My will.

The team will now go through a healing process; you have already been going through it as of November. Can you feel the peace? Can you feel the difference now? The team is more solidified than before. There is no descension, no gossip or back biting. There is a mutual respect. This is what My Son and I have wanted since the team's inception almost nine years ago. During those nine years, thirteen people left or were removed. Is that not surprising?

Pride and ego are to blame for the issues that ensued in the past. Please keep yourself in check. We do not want to remove anyone else. If you have a doubt or a question please ask, do not let it fester. This is when Satan steps in and complicates things. He will always try to create separation between you and Triland. You are wiser than he is. Do not fall prey to him.

This year, 2019 will be filled with new things; More information about this team and its purpose. I will define more as the month's progress. Please be prepared for changes.

I would like to speak on the issues within the congregations; the quality of the services as of late. Yes, the brothers are being instructed to hold the services as though they were holding a seminar. This is not what I wanted. My children need to be fed fresh meat from My table, instead they are receiving processed and microwaved, per say, meat. All the nutrition is gone. This is why My children are starving. I am allowing this to happen to see who will decide to follow Me or a man. Please be patient. I will always place something in each service for you, you must seek it. And certainly, there is strength in the Holy Communion.

Watch this year as other things with the church start to change, and not for the better. Please stay quiet when you are not within this circle. Does everyone understand what I am saying? I do not want any of you tearing into the brothers by gossiping and judging them. On many levels the brother are doing as they are told. So, is it really their fault? No, it is the leaders fault for not following HS. Again, I have my reasons for allowing this. Please refrain and hold your comments.

I will only allow this to take place for a short time, then I will cause a change to take place that will shake the leaders to open their eyes and give them a chance to change who they will follow; Me or the spirit of this world.

I know that within your own personal relationships it has been difficult at times. Misunderstanding, hurtful things were said out of anger and confusion filled your lives. Some of you even questioned if you were supposed to be together. This was all the work of Satan and his spirits. If he can cause any of you to fall this changes my timeline. I wanted all of you to become stronger and build better relationships with each other through wiser communication. Always be on guard. Trust your instincts; take a breath before you speak. Weigh, where is this coming from before you act. And please forgive each other, for I have forgiven you.

And Yes, all of you are meant to be together through all Eternity. This is why I have chosen all of you. Relationships take effort, giving up does not. Please try harder to accept each other's shortcomings. You have all been given a deep love for one another. And I would also like to say that I am proud of you for not giving up. I will give you a deeper understanding of each other's hearts. You are all very special to Me.

The tasks and purpose I have created you for are not an easy road to walk on, neither was it easy for Jesus. But He persevered and never gave up. Yep that is too what I expect from all of you. No pressure. Ha-ha. The difference between you and HIM is that you have each other to help one another. Can you now see that?!

Look back and remember all that you have done with My help to change many lives. This is the team's core purpose. To teach and change a soul's life for the better.

Know that I am always with you and love and support you.
