I give you my peace.

*****Opening prayer*******

Father said: Hello My dear family. My Son's and I have missed spending time with you in this capacity. There will only be one more meeting this year, next month and then we will enter the holiday season and then begin the New Year. How quickly time goes by when one is tested and then one overcomes many obstacles.

So much is churning in this world, so much chaos, pain and suffering. Rumors of war and climate change. Climate change, I had to stick that one in there because that happens every day and man seems to think that that is a bad thing and somehow they have power over it to control it or changed it. They do not. In fact the one thing they have complete power over to change and control they refuse to pay attention to, their own free-will.

Why do I bring this up? Because it is easy to get lost in the world's noise and confusion, but all of you are above that. You are not of this world. None of you are. Do not listen to the world and its fears. You have been educated and know more than the world. You are stronger than the world. This is why I made you. You were created to help mankind. I have told you in the past that you are the Lighthouses, the beacons of light that will draw many out of the darkness and bring them closer to Me.

We enter a dark time, Halloween; we do not participate in this day. Period! The Preparatory Service for the Departed is next week; prepare yourselves and your hearts. Open your capacity to love and carry them. Triland will expound a little on this tonight. And then next month, what a celebration of LIGHT! That day is the biggest guest service in time, the Service for the Departed. It is still lost on many of the members.

They do not understand their part in this service. And despite the Holy Spirit's constant prompting of the leader's hearts to teach more about this, it falls on deaf ears.

You beloved, need to teach within your small circles, this subject. It is not a sad time; it is not a depressing time. Tell me when one is released from all that holds them back and is suffocating them, is that NOT a time for celebration?! Rejoice you are set free! Your Redeemer and friend Jesus Christ died for you that you may live and I may bring you home to share My Kingdom! Such a wonderful day that is lost on many that bear flesh. This is part of your commission. Teach, please.

Continue to fight your own shortcomings too. Many of you have been doing as My son Triland has asked of you. Pick one or two shortcomings and focus on them. Some of you have made headway, and are changing. Congratulations. Also continue to be you! Be the beings I have given many gifts to and share them with the world. I have given all of you many opportunities to do this and some of you still do nothing. Why? Are you embarrassed about who you are? Those who confess Me, I will confess to the world!

Come and spend time with Us. We are still waiting for many of you. Again I will say who receives such an invention like this? No one but you. Please take Me up on my offer, because I have much I would like to personally share with you, about you. But you must make the effort. I am always with you and will always love you.

Does anyone have any questions, comments or something they would like to add?

- ❖ RELIGIONS: Will resume in NOVEMBER?
  - ❖ BIBLE PASSAGES: Nuke will present
  - ❖ A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING: The keys to Hell and death; all of you now have been given a full set. Key to Hell gives you access to hell now and in the future, more to come on that subject. Key to Death has two purposes, you can access Eternity to help souls, and in the future you might bring someone back to life. Over the next few weeks, pick a realm and go in and spend time with them. Just your presence will enlighten them. I am sending you because My Father sends Me. Don't forget the power and authority that you stand in. Help out please.
  - ❖ WORTHLESS BUT INTERESTING TIDBITS: An extinct bird species has evolved back into existence, study says the Aldabra rail bird first went extinct around 136,000 years ago. Now, it's reclaimed its home island. Father enjoys messing with man's understanding.

According to a study published in the Zoological Journal of the Linnean Society, a peer-reviewed scientific journal, sediments from the Aldabra Atoll in the Indian Ocean show that the island has been completely submerged multiple times, wiping out all species inhabiting it. Every time, every species on the island went extinct — but the Aldabra rail has returned, again and again.

❖ Chief Apostle's thoughts on Holy Communion: Q will present, two types of sin

- ❖ Kathy's two experience's
  - ❖ Atmos' experience in St. Louis at the Basilica
  - ❖ StarLight's experience about the sin of deception
  - ❖ The number Father longs for is not just numeric. It is based on the souls willingness to serve, their heart and the capacity to carry the work I the future
  - ❖ Is a soul perfected when it gets to Eternity? No. Is a NAC soul perfected when it gets to Eternity? No, not completely. No one is perfected until Jesus comes
  - ❖ How do you get your joy back? Go back to the basics, start with Father. Put Him first. Go and see Him!
  - ❖ OPEN UP AND SHARE:
  - ❖ Horn's moved in?
  - ❖ Feel we have no impact? One prayer touches millions in Eternity. It lights up the realm
  - ❖ Anyone else?
