Father, Jesus and HS all give you Their love. And I give you my peace.

Father said – My dear team and spouses welcome to a new month of excitement! Many of you have been struggling with your faith, asking Me many questions, wondering if I can hear you. Yes, I can hear you.

Life is a walk of faith and at times much can be learned in silence and when one exercises patience. It is in the quiet of the night that things grow and the body heals. Have you ever thought that maybe I do not answer right away because I trust that you will figure it out all on your own? Hmmm, probably not because you lack faith in yourselves. Yes, I just said that.

Why do you come to the services? Why do you partake in the Holy Communion? May I answer these for you? So that you can take something from My hand and apply it to your lives? So that you can regain strength from the hand of your Brother. And also receive insight into every aspect of your lives. Amazing!!!!!!!!!!

It saddens Me that My children seem to just come to church for the “social aspect” of it. They do not prepare, they do not ask Me for anything. They just show up and do not even listen at all. And then moments before the absolution is spoken they ask Me to forgive them. This is NONSENSE!

It will become in time not just the Apostle’s responsibility to teach them but also yours. Yes, you spouses are included in this too. Do not be surprised. I have told you that ALL of you have a place in My plan. I am sharing more information.

How should you prepare for service? First you must find the time to contemplate your day. Yes, I said day. Can you honestly remember everything you did this past week? If you find a moment each day, take some time and think about what you did wrong, what you did right and what you believe you need to help yourself not to repeat the mistakes of THAT day. Then you can ask Me in that moment when it is fresh.

You daily ask Me to forgive you the moment you do something wrong, do you not? Well you should be!

Then why can you not spend more time with yourself improving your soul's life of struggle with your flesh? That is very poetic if I do say so Myself.

I feel your hearts; this was not what you were expecting this meeting to be about. I decided to make this meeting all about YOU. It is time for all of you to improve yourselves. To make a greater effort to change, to not remain like your old self. To grow into whom, I know you all are.

Jesus controlled His emotions and thoughts. That is why He succeeded in flesh. He did not have any advantage over you. He was tempted in ways that you will never be. He was tortured, you will not be. His path was different than yours and yet all of you seek to follow Him because He made it home. Right? Yes, that is the goal.

I created all of you by My hand of grace. When I finished creating your soul I kissed each of you on the forehead and called YOU good. Is that not a little overwhelming to hear? I share this with you because I took the time out to create you, now I am asking you to take the time out to help yourselves.

Meditation is the greatest tool My Son Triland handed to all of you and yet many of you do not practice it daily or even weekly. Why? Do not tell Me you do not have time. I can see you... I am not mad at you.

Beloved I am trying to inspire all of you to do more, to be better, to be the best "YOU" that I created and called good. Can you see that now? Yes, you can. I do this out of love and again I trust that you CAN do this and you CAN change. You will all become wonderful examples of faith in the future.

One last thing, Triland has this topic on His list for the meeting. I will steal it away from Him because I can. The Service for the Departed is next Month. Would you care to know how many of my children are even praying for them as of today? Not many. So, I will ask all of you, your families and circle of friends to not forget them please. So much is FORGOTTEN because mankind is self-centered and lost. My Guardians and their families will not be numbered amongst those who are like that!

Over the next few weeks I ask that you all meditate. I have assignments that will take some of you into Eternity to help souls, to show them there is love on Earth still. Please also remember your brothers and sister who work there. Your Father loves you and is so proud of you.
