Excused: Nucleous

Absent:

Father and Jesus send you Their love and I give you my peace.

Father said; My dearest team Triland. Many hearts have been turned inside out as of late. I greet you now with peace. Sometimes souls make choices without really understanding all that it takes to complete and fulfill a task. Those who have left us or that were removed lie under this circumstance. They were our friends, sisters and as they left they took with them little pieces of our hearts. We would feel nothing for them if we did not love them.

This time now, is a brutal time. There is more evil active now than in any other time. You can see it all over the world and you can certainly feel it. I know that some of you are afraid. My Son Triland expressed His fears to me and it is perfectly normal to fear. Jesus even feared His lot. What is important is that you do not give up as the others have and walk away. I believe in My heart that the team is strong and will remain until this task is complete. The question I pose to all of you is; do you believe it?!

We have lost many from this team; Triland would tell you nine as of Lauren's departure. Much love, time and effort was given to all of these and when it mattered the most for them to stand strong they fell. What is disappointing to Me is that they did not get back up. Beloved I can tell you that some of you will feel as though you have fallen. It is of the utmost now that you get back up and keep going. Do you think that I will not help you? Do you feel I will not aid you when it is needed?

I will tell you that my Son and I need all of you even more now than ever before. The tide of destruction and change is in motion. It will touch the whole world. You are a vital part of my plan. I did not choose you so you would feel comfortable and when difficult decisions and times come you would give up and leave. I chose you once again because I know all of you can do IMPOSSIBLE!

Come now and see all that you have personally done with what I have given you. Look back at the souls ALL of you have helped so selflessly. Out of love you served them and helped change their circumstances by using the gifts I gave you. I love all of you. I will be very honest with you now. The time will grow tougher, darker and even feel bleak at times. But you Team Triland are the beacon lights that will shine into this darkness and chase away the evil. The whole world will know you by the names I have given you because you are blessed and holy. I have sanctified all of you for this task. Hmmm you are surprised to hear these words.

All I am asking of you is for you to have faith in Me. Put your trust in my plan and support my Son Triland. I do not think that is too much to ask of you. Have you ever invested love, time and sacrificed a part of your life in order to teach or help someone? Only to see them in the future throw all of it away? My Son's and I have certainly experienced this numerous times.

Free-will is one of the most precious gifts I can give man outside of life and very few understand that. You understand that. Your hearts burn right now. You are telling yourselves I would never leave the Lord. And that is good. I will give you more strength. More courage and open your hearts and understanding even more now. My hand is fierce in battle. I have watched all of you in battle. Nucleous soon this will happen for you as well. All of you are fierce! You fear nothing that is in front of you. Many have stood up and opposed Satan himself. Did you ever think you would have the courage to do so? I gave you that courage. You have fought Satan's armies and defeated them. You have removed evil from souls around you. You defend and protect them! You are all so brave!

Then when you are alone Satan comes and tells you that all of this is not real. It is merely a lie or a fabrication. And you are delusional if you really think that Triland is the Lord's second Son, you will just be another fool. Beloved, Satan does not change either. He has been using these same tactics forever and would you like to know why? Because they still work! Mankind listens more to him than Me. Free-will. Free-will. Free-will.

I have not forced you into this task. My son and I have asked you. He has been very open with all of you. He has at times even discouraged you to NOT take this position. But because of the love and respect you have for him and Me you chose. I need you! My Son needs you. And I give you this promise. I will help all of you complete this task! Even in times where you make think it is completely hopeless. Look into the scriptures. These men and women knew hopeless better than anyone and I brought them through did I not? I keep my word and promises and now I am asking you to keep yours.

I know that some of what I put you through at times is anything but pleasant. I do it to teach and prepare you for the future. My son tells me all the time that He will never appreciate my processes, but He still goes through them. One day He may not even complain! Yes a Father can wish. I joke.

I can tell you that all that has transpired with this team as of late has vexed my Son greatly. Jesus and I have held him many times as he has broken down, his heart shattered and He tells me that all He did for these souls was for nothing. Please do not take my Son for granted. He is just as human as all of you. He cries over all of you as he pleads with Me to keep all of you and your families safe. He always asks Me to give all of you extra strength. And when you reach out to him about a problem a moment later Triland is standing in front of Me pleading for you. He loves all of you just as much as I do. And we do not take you for granted either. We all need each other and we will all succeed together until this task is done and Jesus' bride is with US.

I will always give you what you need and even give you a little extra because I can. I will always be your very loving Father and protector. NOW... GET TO WORK! And then Father smiled.

Does anyone have any questions or comments?

Kira – She had surgery on March 24. They removed two cysts as large as eggs from one of her ovaries and one in her lower abdomen they are not cancerous. And they found her appendix was swollen so they removed it as well. She is recovering nicely. Please remember her. Send her an email or text if you feel like it.

Lauren – regret, remorse and confusion (Brilliance will reach out and tell her I am willing to let her back on the team)

Stay focused – Team purpose is; what does all of this mean?

- 1) Protect the Bride of Christ
- 2) Defend the Apostles Doctrine - (The Apostle Creed)
- 3) Help bring the Bride home

Tom – still feels he is being held back – There is nothing Demonic. He contacted the Apostle. He hasn't called him back yet. Please pray that he calls Tom when the time is right.

Atmos will give Tricous a healing Tricous will share with us what Jesus told him. Atmos will share how he's been prepping for this healing.

Next meeting is on Friday, May 8th at 5 PM CST.
