I give you my peace.

Father said, Dear team. Once more we gather together that I may fill all of you with peace and understanding. For some time now I have been moving the hearts of the church's leaders and members. My Son's announcement is truly about My will and as I have said in the past many will not see it that way. Please continue to pray for all the hearts that will be affected on that day.

Spouses, I address you once again. I know that many of you were intimidated by my invitation to come and see Me. My son will share with you a few things to ease your hearts. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Guardians, My Son sent out an email weeks ago asking you to vet your teams. Many of you did that right away and reported back to Him. Some of you did not and still have not. Why? Is it Our, responsibility? Or yours to command your team? Do you take this task lightly? I know all of you have lives but it would seem that "your" lives are taking precedence over your responsibilities. Some of you miss services and it is not because of any true valid excuse. Why? Do you not wish to hear My word and receive grace? The time is short and over these years that We have been together I have spelled out how important it is that you follow Our instructions. I do not change. I will ask all of you once more to attend ALL of the services, to complete the tasks My Son gives you immediately and to put Me first.

Some of you asked WHY our teams are corrupt again?! Every day is filled with a learning opportunity. Perhaps I allowed this to happen to see if you would do as My Son asked? Hmm? Look in your hearts Guardians; do you truly understand what is coming? Do you really want to be a part of this?

I am not "Chewing you out"! I have and Am merely trying to prepare all of you. There is still much doubt in your hearts. Do you not trust Me? Again this day is not about my Son, it is all about My plan to save mankind and fulfill My will. I will have my plan served out the way I ask, not the way man thinks it should be served.

Your current Chief Apostle is a man of faith; that loves and serves Me. I cannot say that about all of the Apostles and ministers. Their love has waxed cold and their lives are more important than their service to Me and my children. This is why this day must happen.

Please pray for Triland. He is concerned for all of you as well. Team have you ever stuck your neck out for Me? Opened yourself up for criticism, mocking, persecution and been out right attacked for doing My will? My Boy has. And yet through all of this He still stays faithful to Me. Why am I sharing this with you? It is because some of you, as I said, still have doubts.

Tell me, has He asked you to do something for Him? Or does He always ask you to serve Me? He draws no attention to Himself, He speaks always about US and what we share in. He teaches, loves and guides all of you. How many times have you come to Him and asked him to pray for you? Some of you have, others you do not. He is your Commander and Leader. He has sacrificed Himself for all of you and your families time and again and when He needs something from you His request is too great for you?

Have I not given all of you your own experiences of faith? Have you not all worked miracles in My Name? Protecting, healing and serving others? My Son was not with you when you experienced these things, and yet you doubt Who He is? When you do this, then you doubt Me?

Guardians please focus on the tasks at hand. We are less than a month away from the Chief Apostles' visit. Much must still take place in these coming weeks. We do not have the time to doubt anymore.

Please vet your teams again and report back to my Son by Wednesday evening. ALL of you! Send him your team information in complete form. My Son does not ask this of you I am asking this of you.

Know that I love all of you. I support and am too always trying to teach you to prepare you for all that is coming. Be strong!

Does anyone have any questions or comments?

I am surprised that the past few months have been filled with this subject; Doubting and not completing tasks.

Vet your teams again. I know all teams have an issue, you've been ignoring them. You need to build relationships with everyone on your team so please rotate them. Replace and RE-Build your team with 5-Warrior Brigade angels and 1-Light Brigade angel. Vet your counseling angel and Healing Master too. I had to replace my Amanda with Maria.

Are you meditating? Is everything more important?

- StarLight and I would like to thank all of you for praying and participating in our wedding day, thank you. – No new realms
 - Spouses visiting Father
 - Brilliance and Blazar – Conversation about what they do to be like Jesus and control their emotions. Fruits of the spirit, Touch Stone. We must overcome our OWN desires. Tell yourself NO and take a breath before you react! Ask yourself WHY is this person acting this way?

Does anyone have any questions, comments or something they would like to share?
