Excused: Nucleous

Absent:

I give you my peace.

Father said; First off I would like to welcome LightStream back to the team. As you can see many things have changed.

Team I have to address this because my Son would not feel comfortable saying anything more about it, so I will. When He gives you an assignment or a task it is important that you complete it within the time He gives you. Sometimes He is aware of things that He does not share with you and I need all of you now from this day forward to have a "sense of urgency" to complete everything please. That is all I am going to say about this.

My Son included all of you in his email to the Apostle Orlofski. I will tell you that yes, he was a little taken back from it. Never in the history of our church has there ever been talk of my Second Son. I think Triland was incredibly pointed and articulate with all that He expressed to the Apostle. HS helped Him write the email because I also wanted to factor in that two more sets of eyes would be gazing at it; the Chief Apostle and the District Apostle. As they read His email there will be a burning in their hearts similar to the two disciples that spoke with Jesus on the road to Damascus. The words my Son wrote to them bare eternal power and life from ME. It is only natural that it would strike them to the heart and leave an impression. Yes, Satan is going to try to twist and turn things inside out but in the long run he will fail because this is all according to My plan.

Please set all of your hearts aright now. Leave all doubts behind you. Yes, Jess is no longer amongst us. The reason My Son removed her was because she did not want to serve Me as the most important place in her heart. I, all of you as the team were down on her priority list. Why am I bringing this up you ask? Because I need all of you to focus now on what is truly the most important place in your life and heart. IS it to serve Me as a Guardian? Is this the first place in your heart or do you still have your doubts? IS the Bride of My Son not important to you? Are you not willing to support and defend the Apostle's Doctrine? Are you even interested in helping the Bride come home? These are all tough questions that only YOU can answer.

So many have been chosen to work with my Son and where are they? Where are your priorities beloved? I see your hearts, I know your fears and your desires and I also know that you love ME! Because of that I will always promise, and we all know that I keep My promises. I will support and give you everything you will ever need to complete all of these tasks.

Do not let anyone or anything influence you any longer. I speak of Satan and his forces but I also am addressing the influences your own family may try to have on you. Do not waver!

I have now heightened all of your senses. I have given all of you a new energy outside of the original creation so you have clarity. You are not fools wandering aimlessly through the world bumping into trouble. You have the eyesight of eagles. You see danger, evil before it strikes. We are not provoked but WE THE GUARDIANS WILL NOT STAND DOWN!

You will have to fight in the future; you will protect and defend "HER" Jesus' Bride with everything you have. And in the times where you are worn down, tired and feel broken I will personally minister unto you strength, confidence, and the ever pressing desire to continue forward. This is my promise to all of you. STAND STRONG!

We are now only one short of completing the Core of the Guardians. One more puzzle piece to fit in. The last one is very special and integral to my plan. No they are not more important than any one of you. It is the role that this one Guardian will play out for Me in the end time. All of you will be given specific tasks to carry out from my Son, and so will this one. I have been preparing this last Guardian for some time now. They are still like a sword being forged against an anvil. They fight the Creator's hand and push back on Me, and unfortunately I must hit them harder with the hammer as I try to bend their will to Mine. I can see now that all of you are glad that you are NOT THIS LAST GUARDIAN?!

Each one of you holds a special place on this team. Each one of you bares hand-crafted gifts. I am the One who chose them for you and never forget that I chose all of you as well. I have always seen something special in all of you because I put it there when I created you. Pretty crazy when you think about it, HMMMM?

Be strong Guardians of Triland! Well that has a nice ring to it! (Father chuckled) Yes, you are all His. Those in the past and even now are known as Apostles of Jesus. I gave all of you to Him, right now in this moment. You are a gift to His heart and purpose. You will not fail Him and you will not fail ME!

The Apostles and other ministers are now going to find out that all of you exist and what all of you are really involved with. Tell me Guardians, have you ever done something wrong while you were in this position? Have you hurt a soul? Mislead one? Lied to them for your own benefit? YOU HAVE NOT! Then why do some of your hearts feel fear? You must be strong and confident in what I have asked you to do and what my Son has asked you to do. No one can accuse you of any wrong doing can they? You are no different than Jesus' Apostle in the first church. Did they do wrong in man's eyes? Yes, because the men of that time were blind. Did they do wrong in My eyes? No they did not!

Are you starting to understand now why I am bringing all of this to your attention? You have served Me and both of my Son's faithfully. Do you not think that I will personally defend you in the future? My will and plan will be fulfilled in spite of what mankind thinks of you or ME.

In time I will present all of you to the world and I will say to all of you, well done my faithful Guardians enter into My kingdom with joy! Know as always that I love all of you.

Does anyone have any questions?

Apostle Orlofski's response to my email

Dear Jim,

I appreciate your honesty and writing to me your thoughts and feelings. Your email goes into a lot of areas that I cannot agree with and some I will not comment on. Let me expound though on the following points:

- You ask me to not trust your word, but trust our Heavenly Father. I do trust Him and I also trust that He works through the Holy Spirit who works through the Apostle ministry which Jesus gave upon His departure. I have not heard any of what you discuss in your email from our Chief Apostle. I would expect something of this magnitude to come from him and not through someone else.
- You ask, "Who can do what I can do?" I believe none of us can do anything unless it first comes from our Heavenly Father. We often spoke about your gift to see things and help people who were in need. I always ended our conversation with the thought: "You have a gift but God expects you to use it wisely."
- You claim that Jesus and you are brothers who both have the Father's personality and traits. We believe that the Lord Jesus is the "only" begotten Son of God. This cannot and will not change. I cannot go along with you claiming to be the "lion" who is spoken about in Revelation. More and more our Chief Apostle has been against spiritualism and the use of miracles and supernatural ideas.
- I understand your thoughts here that you are to protect the bride of Christ and eradicate evil. I just cannot agree with this and must tell you these ideas go against our teaching and understanding of scripture.

At this time, I do not feel a meeting is a good idea. With this new information I need to ask you not to continue spreading these ideas in our congregations or with the New Apostolic members. This will only confuse souls and cause grief within them. Then the church will have to refute your claims with each soul. It is better we don't go down this route.

Yours,
Karl E Orlofski

Our next meeting is on Sunday, June 12 at 5 PM CST.
