I give you my peace.

"Where is your faith?" Luke 8:25

Father said; Dear team. Many tests and trail have been given to all of you. In some cases I have tested you to the brink of your faith. At times you have all questioned Me. I am doing all of this to prepare you for the future. This is not new news to any of you. I am toughening you up! And though you have said to me, "I cannot take much more Father!" I have shown you that you are much stronger than you would give yourselves credit.

Much must still take place before my Son's announcement. I am not speaking of more tests for all of you. I am speaking of all of the hearts that will accept or reject my Son's arrival. You must all search your hearts and ask these questions.

1) Am I strong enough to stand up against the world and support Triland?

This does not only apply to the outside world but within your own families.

2) Are you willing to leave them and work alongside my Son to complete these tasks?

Many of your families will not accept Him and they will believe you to all be fools.

3) Are you willing to sacrifice yourself for the needs of mankind?

You are no different than those who served with Jesus. They gave up their lives, I am not asking you to do this. I am merely sharing with you things that I have seen that haunt some of your hearts.

4) Are you convicted that you truly believe that Triland is My second Son?

Never has my Son ever asked you to do one thing for himself. He has always asked you to serve ME. Do you believe that this will change in the future? I can tell you that it will not! He will always stay true to the tasks at hand and He will not falter no matter what any man thinks!

Beloved we are in the stages of the "Final touches". I am trying to gently mould you, encourage you and teach you stamina and endurance. Can you all now see this?

Never will you be alone. Never! Even in the future you will be paired up, two Guardians working together in certain areas. And on certain occasion you will stand alone but I will be with you, so are you then really alone? No you are not!

I have never forsaken any of you. And I will continue to support and love you through all of this. Now please take heart and be strong. The tide of this world and all the evil that is in it will soon be unleashed in a way that mankind has never suffered under before. I am not telling you this to scare you but as a matter of fact to prepare you. You can all do this! Why? I will remind you once again. I did not create you to handle difficult, I created you to handle IMPOSSIBLE! Now all you need to do is trust in Me, stay by my Son's side and carry out your three tasks. Oh I should also tell you that I have seen the future and all of you are victorious! I love you all and look forward to the day when we can be together for all Eternity. Know that I love all of you.
