

Team Meeting notes – Sunday, September 10, 2017 – 6:00 PM (CST)

Chief Guardians in attendance: LightStar, StarLight, Nucleous, Blazar, Brilliance, ArrowStar, Aquos, Atmos, Quasar, Tranquility, spouses and Triland.

Excused: Tricous & Luminance

Absent:

Father, Jesus and HS all give you Their love.

We have a lot to share in this meeting so we may go over an hour.

Please don't leave your phone on speaker. And if you are going to make noise please mute your phone.

LightStar - sick, please remember her. She couldn't breathe, Bronchitis, no pneumonia

Father said – Dear team Triland. For all of this past year's meetings it has been chiding and correction. Many do not appreciate the tone of the meetings as of late. They feel that much has been lost. You are correct.

I will tell you that some of you hear the meetings but you are not listening to Me or My Son and then acting on the instruction or information.

My Son will address the "heart" of the team today. You will all discuss what is it to serve Me and to be a Guardian. You have lost your first love in Me.

You cannot serve two masters. What two masters am I speaking of. I am your Master and yet you to are your own master. As of late many of you choose to serve yourselves. The Bride of My Son is selfless, unrelenting, humble, and honest and is willing to sacrifice everything to serve Me and My Sons for the sake of mankind. Perhaps you forgot that this life I gave you is but a training ground for your future. I will repeat this again. YOUR FUTURE. Not just the future.

To be a Guardian takes a special soul and I demand a personal interest in its development. My Son the day He contacted you with My invitation discouraged you from taking this position did He not?! He told you all what would be expected of you, trained you, spent time with you, gave you power and authority from My hand and continues to teach you and yet you resist Him. Why? I will say it again. You have lost your first love.

Do you remember when you were training at the start? You were excited. You could not wait to meditate, to come see Me and to train with Michael. To go into battle and fight evil. To help your fellow man when down and when they needed a healing or an encouraging word.

What has happened to that, which drove you at that time? Has everything become more important to you then what My Son's and I are asking of you?

Every day you bring to Me your concerns for your natural life, family, financial needs, work and school needs. But how often do you talk to Me about yourself; your weaknesses, your failings? Or even your struggles with being a Guardian or even your desire to be My Son's Bride? You only look at the physical, beloved, please; I need you to focus on the spiritual.

If the spiritual part of your existence were not that important to My plan then we would not need to have a monthly meeting. My Son would not send out emails asking you to do something. Did all of you listen to the recording He asked you to listen to? Would you like to know why He did that?

At that time there was such a comradery between all of you. You shared a love unlike any other time. There was peace and harmony. Would like to know why this was? You were all in the first love. You were doing as I asked of you. You were doing as My Son asked of you and you had joy in your hearts to serve. That has left someone you. Why?

Did Triland disappoint you? Have your Generals disappointed you? Do you have an expectation of your fellow teammates that they are falling short of in your eyes? Do you believe that you know better? That YOU are better than anyone else? Or that you no longer need to do as you are asked?

Beloved again the Bride of Christ serves out of love. There is no judgment in My Kingdom! There is but one valid opinion, MINE. I am not concerned with what you think. Or what you want.

Have I not been kind to you? I gave you life, I equipped you with all you would need to succeed in life and still you are unsatisfied. Have I fallen short of your expectation of Me? The past few services have been about that, have they not? Please focus and listen to what I am trying to tell you.

Your path is different than others. It does not mean you are better than others. I will reiterate once more that you are the only group that I spend time with monthly speaking to you via a letter that I give my Son to share with you. You and your spouses are the only group that I will allow to come and see Me and spend time with Me, Jesus and HS.

Have you forgotten the vow you made to Me to serve as a Healer and Guardian? Have you forgotten the "YES" you gave My Son so He could place you on His team. Do you take that vow lightly? I do not. This day is not an excuse for you to leave the team. You have given Me your word and I am holding you to it!

I will never leave you. I will always protect you. But My dear ones I HAVE AN EXPECTATION OF YOU. And you are falling short of it. I forgive you. This day is a day of renewal.

All that has happened in the past is now in the past. You should thank Me that I have amnesia! That was a joke.

I know that this path is difficult, it takes a commitment, it takes time. Life is choices and within your life lies time. You must make better choice and fit My hearts requirements into your lives. Why not ask Me to help you? WELL THAT'S A NOVAL IDEA, HMMM? Ask, as My Son would say, "The Guy" for help. Have I ever turned you away? I have not, nor will I ever.

Please renew your commitment to Me and My Son Triland and stay the course. Your path has not even really started yet.

Much still must take place in this world. Look at all of the natural disasters that are taking place. Can you feel all of the wars that are soon to break out? All of this heralds Jesus' return! Never forget that!

I created you to do impossible and yet you feel you cannot. Last time I checked My word is the final word and I say YES YOU CAN! Know I will always love you.

Does anyone have any questions, comments?

- LET ME CLAIRIFY A FEW THINGS:
  - Jesus asked Peter three times "do you love me"? When we love someone nothing is too much. We sacrifice. Do you love Father? Do YOU love me?
  - I have the responsibility to love you, teach you and correct you when needed.
  - Let's all start over with each other and forgive. Maybe you felt I was a bit too hard on you. Be honest, do you need to improve on something? Or your General didn't measure up to your expectation. Or you judge your fellow team-mates? Why? We are all human.
  - Small groups - was a suggestion not an order. How do you fit yourself into the congregation? Fellowships, send a card, pray for a member?
  - And now I give you my peace.
  - Serving Father as a Guardian - Teams emails.

- Serving Father - It is doing The Dailies, I will email everyone an update Dailies list this week. Do these in the morning before you leave your home. This will protect you all day. Turn your POG shield bright white to kill anything in your space, then back to blue? Give yourself a healing . If you are not doing these things then you may become the weak link in our team chain. So Please do them. Give our spouses, family friends a healing.
- We need to step outside of our comfort
- By protecting our congregations, giving healings, talking about our faith, being active in the congregation. We Meditate; spend time with Him, Jesus, HS and Archangels. See Him, feel His love and light it will eliminate you just like the Sun warms our skin.
- Attach your 7th chakra to Heaven, throne room floor in front of Father.
