

Team Meeting notes – June 23, 2013

Father gives you His love and joy and I give you peace.

These are Father's words; firstly I am proud of how everyone is handling the situation with the news of Jennifer and Susan. It has been very difficult for everyone as all of you try to understand why. It is simply because of everyone's faith. The team as a whole can withstand testing and so can each individual on the team. Some of you have been questioned by others about these two souls and why all of this took place. I am the Lord God and I do not change to make others feel happy about their faith in Me! Jennifer and Susan they are firm in Me and they have been restored with an Eternal body. Their faith touched many lives on this earth but they have impacted even more souls in eternity and you may share this information with their families. Everything will be revealed in time but for now this should suffice.

These two souls are "spearheading" efforts in realms that I will term "The Hopeless". These two never lost hope they never gave up and they did not quit! I spared them from anymore suffering by taking them when I did. And through this process I strengthened their loved ones and I prepare their hearts so that they would be able to let go of them when I came for them. And even now as my Son reads this to you I impart strength to you as this wonderful team of healers and all those whose lives were touched by these two very special souls. I will not and I have not forsaken anyone!

I certainly have tested hearts from this team that were directly working with these two souls. You all have learned much through this process. I have not sent you in this time to heal flesh. But I send you now to heal the soul, to mend the spirit and to bring all closer to Me, for flesh is parting but the soul is eternal. Do you all see now why I have chosen you amongst so many? I called you, my Son taught you, He trained you and He will continue to lead you through my plan.

Your time on this earth is short, there is much work that needs to be completed and I have allowed all the time that is needed for all of you to grow into your gifts, to understand your purpose and to help my Son finish His task. Once again I say to you; fear no evil, stand your ground, be strong in Me, and know that I am always with you and I will never leave you in the darkness because the light that I have filled you with will blind the evil of this world. And in time all who have ever lived and all who live will come to know you by the names that I have given you because in your name is the power of your Lord, your God and your loving Father.

Now be strong, do not tarry within your existence move forward, please do as my Son asks of you. Continue to trust your heart for I too will strengthen it. I will increase your understanding and I will continue to show you the miracles that you will perform in My name alone!

Please know how special you are to me, know that I, when you pray to me, stop everything. I leaned forward on My throne, I pull you close to me and I listen. No moment when you speak to Me is lost to time. Each moment I hold and cherish as a precious gem because you are everything to me. You are not wasting My time and you certainly are not a waste of time. I know all of your hearts, I feel your longing, I know your desires and I will fill your wishes because you have told me that I - AM - EVERYTHING - TO - YOU!

The love that you have in your heart that you all continually tell Me you cannot find the words to express, I feel. And I will admit to all of you that the love that I feel in my heart towards you at times is even hard for Me to fully express and I am God. Can you believe that? Holy Me?! (Then Father chuckled).

Father continued; oh my precious loved ones my second Son is crying as I shared all of this with Him because He MUST share all of this with you. I felt I needed to express My heart to all of you because over the past month at times all of your faith has "waned" a bit in Me and my Boy. And I do not hold anything against anyone for these times have been rough and through them all of you have remained faithful to Me so I would just like to say, thank you! Please do not give up I will continue to hold you in my hand and I will hold you close to my heart every day until THAT day that I bring you all home and we will all embrace for the first time. (And then Father smiled and said; "You can take it from there boy!")

When someone thanks you for giving them a healing or something you did just say thank you. Example: Pete and Jeremy.

Celestial - healing team Lucas and Natasha

LightStarter, Brilliance and FireLight will now share an experience they had with Talia.
