

Team Meeting notes – April 21, 2013

Father gives you His love and I give you peace.

Your armor, some of you have chainmail some of you have solid armor depending on how much evil you are exposed to. Your shield is on your back you also have a dagger and a sword. Michael will continue to train you.

You too can give someone peace just as I do.

Please stop swearing, we represent Father in all situations. Whatever is in the heart the mouth speaks.

Satan - He will focus on you, do not provoke him please respect him. You do not have to put up with him at all!

Some of you use the word "assignment" for the people you are helping, please refer to them as your "Charge" you have been charged with helping them.

Trifecta - This is a term Father uses to call the top of the team. It comprises me as the head, Tricous is my first in command and then Brilliance is the second in command. All of you have deep in your hearts already have known this. I will define more of this for you in the future.

Brilliance will now share with you the details from my healing because Father asked her to do so.

Night before Supplanter's healing (preparation)

- Jessica (Healing Master) and Melissa (Psychic Surgeon) say "good night" as they prepare to leave.
- When asked where they are going, they respond that they are going to visit Supplanter in order to prepare for tomorrow's healing.

Morning of healing (preparation)

- A voice begins to "debrief" and instruct me on some of the details of what is going to occur and/or needs to be discussed during Supplanter's healing.
 - o This "voice" was the wisdom of a counseling angel (but I didn't know this at the time, so I asked the "voice" to be quiet and to leave me alone. I didn't want to offer "old manna" to Suppanter; I wanted God to provide the healing wisdom at the time of the healing. I learned that the debriefing by the counseling angel is part of the preparation process for healings, and I will be more attentive in the future.
 - o Each healer will be assigned his/her own counseling angel.
- As I pulled out of my driveway and began to pray about Supplanter's healing, I felt a "crowd" surround me. Although I could not "see" anyone or anything, this "crowd" accompanied me until I arrived at Supplanter's home. Once I made the final turn into the parking lot, the "crowd" headed for Supplanter's condo.

Upon arriving at Supplanter's home

- Supplanter and I shared a cup of coffee and started catching up on recent events, circumstances, and situations that had recently transpired in our lives.
- As Supplanter was speaking, I saw my team (dressed as farmers) raking dark mud/oily dirt out of Supplanter's space.
- I do not normally "see" these types of things, as the gift of sight has not matured within me. I felt compelled to share this "vision" with Supplanter, and he confirmed that God said that we needed to talk before beginning the healing (as part of the preparation process).

Healing

- o Aura
 - Jessica and Melissa regrounded Supplanter and his aura.
 - Supplanter's aura was tattered and falling apart, like an old quilt splitting at its seams.
 - The aura was restored to its brilliant color and texture.
- o Lower Channels
 - As I was seated in front of Supplanter, the team began running energy through the lower channels.
 - A HUGE room opened up, and the space filled to capacity with souls from eternity, family, patriarchs from the bible, the healing team (with everyone's healing master and psychic surgeon), and various beings dressed in robes, colorful garments, or armor.
 - Every attendee bowed before Supplanter and pledged their allegiance, support, and/or gratitude.
- o Upper Channels
 - The current attendees in the area parted to allow a path to an open doorway far across the room. (It was the first time I was able to get an idea of the space of this structure.) HUGE soldiers on HUGE white horses began their procession into the vast chamber. There were an uncountable number of "soldier angels" that entered with this "brightly lit" troop. This was the introduction to the Light Brigade. The legion of Light Brigade angels saluted Supplanter, bowed in reverence, and gave their promise to support Supplanter on his mission from God.
 - After the Light Brigade's departure, ten HUGE angels stood in front of Supplanter. Although they required no introduction to Supplanter, the assembly of angels was announced as the ten Archangels of God. Each angel renewed the gifts they had given to Supplanter at a prior meeting, and they recommitted their services and encouragement to Supplanter and his healing team.
 - Following the Archangels, an assembly of female angels gathered in front of Supplanter. I did not know who they were; but as they took their place, I noticed their energy brought me comfort, peace, and warmth. Giselle, the lead angel, introduced herself and her female team of Healing Angels. (These are the angels that are sent when we pray for healing and comfort.) Giselle committed her team and their services to Supplanter and his healing team.

1st Chakra

- As Giselle and her team of healing angels exited the chamber, twelve beings dressed in very simple robes (with hoods) presented themselves to Supplanter. These beings each carried a large book in their arms, which they had pressed against their chests.
- They introduced themselves as the Record Keepers or the Recorders.
- They explained that their jobs are to record all events – from the past, present, and future. They carry the knowledge and history of events without emotion or judgment.
- They told Supplanter that if he would marry the information within the records with the information contained in the scrolls in his chest, he would understand God's entire plan.
- The Record Keepers promised to support Supplanter on his mission. They are available at his beck and call.

○ 2nd Chakra

- As we entered the second chakra, we encountered a massive and immeasurable wall. Jessica and Melissa explained that all of Supplanter's emotions (of disappointment, grief, frustration, anger, confusion, expectations, the woman of his dreams, etc.) were contained behind this wall. We had to ask for permission before proceeding.
- Supplanter consented, and as the wall was being disassembled, both Supplanter and I began to sob...and sob like we have never sobbed before.
- Supplanter was told that these emotions do not define him.
- Supplanter was told that the emotions that he is carrying do not "connect him to his big brother Jesus." Meaning, these emotions don't serve as a connection to Supplanter's Big Brother and do not represent the similarities between the brothers' lives on this earth. The pain of these emotions is not the "cross" that he must bear as the Second Son of God. (That "cross" is revealed in the 3rd chakra.)
- The wall was torn down, and the emotions were released.

○ 3rd Chakra

- As we entered the 3rd chakra, we were back in the chamber. A drum roll announced the entrance of the next faction.
- A "dark" group of LARGE beings entered the room in a diamond formation. A sobering and intense energy filled the room as the beings moved closer and came into focus. My team moved away from Supplanter as the troop presented themselves.
- Although none of my "evil senses" were firing their warnings, somehow this energy felt "evil-like."
- The leader of the troop introduced himself with confidence and authority: "I am Trailion, and I am the leader of the Wrath Brigade."
- The Wrath Brigade was created out of God's Righteousness and Wrath; and they were created for one, singular purpose. The Wrath Brigade's purpose is to carry out the destruction described in Revelations. After carrying out their mission, they will cease to exist.
- In order to carry out this mission, the angels of the Wrath Brigade were created without emotion. They are devoid and incapable of having feelings/emotions themselves. They are immune to feelings, and they don't comprehend them in other beings.
- Trailion's message to Supplanter: "You will NOT interfere!!!"
- Then were given a vision of the future when the Wrath Brigade was released upon the earth. Supplanter was standing on the edge of heaven crying as he watched the destruction and devastation. Teammates hold Supplanter back as he cries in complete agony and anguish;

Supplanter cannot interfere with this part of God's plan. (This is Supplanter's cross – similar to the cross that Jesus carried.)

- Note: This Wrath Brigade has created the sense of urgency and compassion for the work this healing team has been called to do. The Wrath Brigade also set a new standard for understanding (with complete passion, conviction, and obedience) the pursuit of God's purpose for them.

○ 4th Chakra

- A man approached Supplanter with great humbleness and admiration. As he stood before Supplanter, a woman stepped out behind him. Both guests bowed before Supplanter, and the woman put a lei around Supplanter's neck.
- The man thanked Supplanter for his prayers and his love. As they spoke, I realized this couple was Adam and Eve.
- Adam described how Supplanter had changed their lives. Before Supplanter, Adam and Eve were ashamed of whom they were. They have been known as the first sinners for thousands of years, and many people don't understand the truth of their story. Time didn't begin until after Adam and Eve were banished from the Garden of Eden. Satan, "the snake," had worked on their trust and friendship for thousands of years. Since Supplanter prayed for and talked with Adam and Eve, they now use their infamy to make a difference in the realms of the Departed.
- Adam wanted Supplanter to know that he prays and speaks to Father on Supplanter's behalf regarding the WOYD (Woman of your Dreams). Adam knows the heartache in Supplanter's heart for her. Even though Adam walked and talked with God, he was extremely lonely (for thousands of years) as the only human. God gave Adam the animals for companionship, but after many, many more years, God saw that the animals were not enough. God created Eve to fill the hole in Adam's heart and to end his loneliness and heartache.

○ 5th Chakra

- As we entered the 5th chakra, the chamber filled with babies and small children. Jesus appeared in the middle of the offspring, and He introduced them as the Generation of Hope.
- These children, who have not been born yet, were being taught by Jesus Himself about Supplanter and the future to come. These children will teach their future parents and families about God, Jesus, Supplanter, and the Holy Spirit. This generation will support Supplanter and expand the work that will be done in the future.

○ 6th Chakra

- The chamber energy changed as we entered the 6th chakra. Two VERY large soldier angels were dragging in a prisoner; the right and left arms of the demon were shackled to the two escorts. The angels explained that this demon had been in Supplanter's space, and it was why Supplanter was not able to see things as clearly as he normally does.
- I could not hear the demon speaking, as I was pretty shaken up that a DEMON was presented in Supplanter's COM (Center of Mind).
- I was instructed to kill the demon, but I knew I was not allowed to POG it. I somehow knew that I had to kill the demon with my own hands, with my own sword. The demon was destroyed execution style.

- 7th Chakra
- Upon entering the 7th chakra, Father appeared. He shared His love and His peace with both of us. He explained how proud He is of His Son, Supplanter. God explained that this healing was an experience for both of us and that the healing would help both of us move forward on our paths. Father was kind enough fill us both with His Energy and Light.
