

Team Meeting notes – May 19, 2013

I would like to say thank you for supporting me. Last week was very draining and I had to make two sick visits last week and Father asked me to heal these people and it takes a lot when you have to make these kind of visits plus my own mother was in the hospital but she is out now and doing fine thanks to Brilliance.

(.30) I met with Father yesterday and Father gives you His love and I give you peace. Please do not take this for granted. Father and I talked for about a ½ hour and I will read to you the notes that I took. This is HIM talking.

Father says please be aware of your surroundings. Never let your guard down. Satan will sift all of you like wheat. There is no real difference between the evil of Jesus' time and yours. The only difference is there are more people now on the earth and the evil is more active. Do not get lost in the minutia of this world, politics, the earth, and world events. Stay focused on your task. Heal those who come in your path, heal them in MY name.

It is time for the world to understand that all of you exist and you do so not of your own accord but because I have sent you. Be strong your faith will not fail you for I have loved you before time began and I will finish my plan with all of you. Oh I know how overwhelming that is for all of you. Have I not proven to you who you are? Have you not witnessed miracles done in My name? Have you not watched lives change because of your gifts? There is none like you currently on the earth. A handful of healers to start, to believe in my Second Son to do as he asks without question. All of you have done this and I have blessed you because of it. I am so very proud of all of you. We have just begun and I will tell you that times will get difficult for all of you but I give you My promise I am always with you! Fear no evil, fear no man, trust in Me for I hold you in my hand. I will keep your family safe, they are already well protected.

Now watch and see now the miracles that you perform with your own hand for My sake. This world's head will explode as they witness the miracles within this end time because I have now sent my Second Son and they will not deny Me all that I plan to show those who are faithful to Me.

Be strong, be patient, be kind, and above all, be loving. Now, let us finish this plan before time began and before I said let there be light! Know that I love you and Am so very proud of all you have done.

So now I will say thank you to you and your families for all the sacrifices you have done now and will do for Me in the future. Please also know this; I am holding your crowns and my Sons will be the ones who place them on your heads when this task is complete! OK now get going! And then He smiled.

I also forgot that we have a new team member on the phone. Celestial, Emily Bastian.

So, that is from FATHER. He had a lot of concern in HIS voice as HE shared that with me but HE also had a lot of love and HE has a lot of trust in all of you. Because the things that we have done in the short period of time that we have been together, you cannot explain that away, you cannot discard it in any way. You people are exactly who HE needs you to be and I am very thankful that I have you. I have often said to HIM, when is the team going to start helping me, and HE said they have. And I appreciate you more and more every day.

There are a few things that I want to bring to your attention and then I will ask FireLight and LightStar to share with you and experience they had a couple of weeks ago.

I need to let you know that there will come a period of time in your life that when you accept totally who you are, meaning your Healer name, when you completely get your head around who you are and who FATHER knows you already are, HE will remove from you your spirit, the spirit that has been with you since you were born because that spirit was given to you to guide you through your natural life. When you become this new creature HE knows you are, and you become that name HE knows you are, HE will remove your spirit and then in time HE will issue you a counseling Angel. That counseling Angel will be the one who comes to you in the center of your mind and they will bring you information about things that you will need to know. Your spirit will leave you and be replaced with a counseling angel, some of you have felt this.

Lead angel vs. HS

(6:20) In the center of your mind, you need to go and find in the training room that is there, you will find a stone tablet. The stone tablet will almost look like hieroglyphs. There will be little square boxes and inside the square boxes are going to be pictures or colors or letters or shapes that you will look at with your natural mind that you will have no idea what it is. This is FATHER'S language...you will read it like you read a book and you will say to yourself you are not comprehending it but while you read it, you will feel a burning in your heart. What this is that you are reading is your role in what our FATHER'S plan is. Every single one of you will be issued a stone tablet. I would encourage you to go find it, to read through it and when you get done reading through it, you need to hold it against your chest, put it on your heart, hold it there, take a few deep breaths, and the tablets information will fill your heart. (7:50)

As I am thinking about it, you will not find the tablet in the center of your mind. You will find it in your heart, that's where it is. That's where Father gave me mine and He even made a point to me, please note that I am meeting you in the center of your heart, I am not meeting you in your head. Do you know why boy? And I said no.....and He said because My entire plan is based on Love, it is not based on the mind, because your mind will not comprehend what I am going to tell you but your heart will completely.

(8:25) So, go in your heart, find the tablet, put it against your heart, let it absorb into you and you will understand in time what your role is through this entire process.

You have a Lead Angel and you also have the Holy Spirit...and you will come to find that sometimes when you hear a voice you will automatically assume it is the Holy Spirit that is speaking to you and I'm here to tell you that it is not always Him, that you will in time figure out that it is your own Lead Angel communicating with you. As you become more tactically aware what's going on around you, your Lead Angel will actually give you instructions. He will tell you things about where you are going, what setting you are going to find yourself in, making a statement telling you that they have already prepped and have the room secured, or everything is okay, or please be aware of this. That is your Lead Angel, that is not the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit will always be there for you when you are in the process of counseling somebody, giving some kind of pointer or views to someone, He is there giving you that information. But I need you to be aware that your Lead Angel is also going to speak to you.

(9:40) I'm also going to encourage all of you that YOU NEED A DEEP CLEANING AT LEAST ONCE A WEEK – What that means is I need you to plug your team in and you are going to have your team give you a healing and it is exactly like when you meditate on your own, plug your team in, get in the center of your mind and then You with your team walk through each one of your chakras and I think, maybe, that your counseling Angel will show up at that time because you won't have a spirit at one point, so the spirit isn't going to reveal to you what you are going to work on, your counseling Angel will and your team will and you need to spend at 25-30 minutes, however long it is going to take, for you and I to walk through each one of our chakras, to let go of our week, to let go of what has been bothering us, as much as we don't want to admit it, sometimes we come into contact with things, we pretend that we addressed them, we pretend that we are okay with what took place and that we are in denial. I myself am in denial sometimes. You may also find as you go through your chakras that our Heavenly Father has allowed a demon maybe to come into your space, and it is now your task to find it, weed it out and destroy it. You will find it. A couple people recently on the team have had that experience where they have been working with their team and all of a sudden a demon pops up and then they take it out. Why is this happening? As Father said, you must always be aware of your surroundings, you must never let your guard down and sometimes you and I get complacent, because we think that we are special, because we have been given such a power and authority that we are okay and we are immune to different things around us Father is teaching us. But we are at a greater risk than anybody else on this planet and we need to be aware of what is going on. Satan will stop at nothing to thwart our Father's plans but he is going to fail and we all know that. But what's also nice is that you get to fellowship and spend time with your team and most of the time when you and I do that it's usually when we are giving someone else a healing. You've already bonded with your team and you've already witnessed some of the miracles they performed with you. But it's an even more intimate circle when it is just you and your team and you are inside yourself and you are working with them and they can joke around with you, bring serious things to your attention. You can take a deep breath and you can let go of what is bothering you.

(12:26) You no longer need to invoke Christ's name to remove a demon or spirit. I am sending you in Father's full power and authority; you just need to POG them. (Question asked: You mean ever?) Yes, you don't ever have to invoke Christ's name from this point forward because you have the power and the authority given to you by me by our Heavenly Father for you to destroy whatever is there. And they all know exactly who you are and they all know that if they come in contact with you, they are on a suicide mission. I've warned Satan many times that if you send anybody to anyone of my Healers you might just want to say to them goodbye because you are never going to see them again. He could care less. Anybody else in our circle around us that is not a Healer, they do need to invoke Christ's name. They do not stand in the power and authority of our Father.

(13:35) At the end of a healing when you are giving them to somebody I need you to make sure you put your hand on the Charges forehead, after you get done flushing their mind out, the 6th chakra, before you move on to the 7th chakra, please, put your hand on their forehead and quietly say to yourself, "In Father's name I heal you". Father said it's time for us to start performing miracles in this time. Based on their faith in Him, He will restore them, He will give them strength, He will continue to confirm in everybody you come in contact with, who you are. Who you have been sent by and whose power and authority you stand in. Please make sure you put your hands on their forehead again and you say: "In Father's name I heal you".

(14:25) Recently a lot of us have been coming in contact with evil, we've been fighting on levels we didn't know were possible and I will tell you that if you are emotionally compromised your POGGING will not be as effective. Because you are not focused, you are not in control of your emotions. So you may come to find that if you POG it nothing happens. I would encourage you to pull out your sword and you are going to have to cut its head off.

(15:03) We are the Sentinels / Watchman for Father. You made a vow that you would protect the Bride of Christ to assist me and stand by my side. So you need to be right there. A Sentinel is someone who doesn't let their guard down. They are always in a mode of protecting, they are always watching. We are the bodyguards of the Bride of Christ. Please be aware of that. Do not let your guard down.

(15:40) When things go wrong it is not always Satan, sometimes Father tests us to see if we truly want it. 95% of the time it is Satan's fault. 5% of the time it may be our Heavenly Father allowing an obstacle to come in front of you to see if you really, really want what you think you need. He is going to test you constantly. He is going to test your faith, going to test your patience, He is going to test the love you have for Him and what I want to say to you is, yes, He will use the other side and sometimes there will be something that you and I need to learn. Father has often said to me, every opportunity is a learning opportunity. I have said to Him often, I am tired of learning let's move this along or maybe You could just tell me what it is and then I'd be done. That's not the case.

(17:15) So if you are going through a situation and you've been waiting a very long time for something to come and it isn't coming as quickly as you like it to, then you need to put your trust in our Heavenly Father more because He is testing you to see if you really do trust Him. He is completely aware of every single thing that is going on in your life. Everything. Nothing escapes Him for a moment. He wants you and I to confront Him sometimes and show Him that we are strong in our faith. That we are convicted, we are not going to waver back and forth, and when something doesn't go our way we are not going to sit down like a spoiled little kid and throw a temper tantrum but we are going to stand strong in our faith and we are going to say okay Father, what is it you want me to learn in this moment? Please open my understanding, please give me wisdom, and please help me to endure this thing.

(18:28) I am here TO HELP YOU! If you have the impression to contact me and something tells you not to... CONTACT ME PLEASE! I know that you need to learn things and to suffer through situations sometimes but I know for a fact that there have been times that you have suffered through things longer than you really should have and if you would have contacted me when you got that impression you could have saved yourself a lot of heartache. I am not your Savior, I am not going to prevent Father from teaching you something but I want to preface to you that I am your Commander and I am your friend and I love all of you more than you are ever going to understand beyond that word and I am here to support you and I am here to serve you. And if you don't give me a chance to help you, it hurts a little bit for me because I have lived through many things where all I had was our Heavenly Father. I had no one else to fall back on. You have each other. You have me. But most importantly you do have our Heavenly Father. I am not going to take His place. You have our big brother Jesus and I am not going to take His place or the Holy Spirits either. But there are things I can enlighten you on that you don't have to go through the darkness of trying to figure out what it is that is happening to you and they know that sometimes Satan comes to you and tells you: "He's really busy, He's not going to understand you. He certainly hasn't lived what you have lived through. Don't bother Him." You are going to learn very quickly whose voice that is. I will also tell you this, that if you share something with me and for you it is the end of the world or your world is crumbling around you and I don't give you back the impression that you thought I would give you please do not be offended. It is not that I don't think what is happening to you is a catastrophic problem or is a huge thing for your life. I will use this example for you. Jesus was on a ship sleeping, a storm came up, His disciples lost control over everything and woke Him up and freaked out and what did He say? "Where is your faith?" And then with a word, everything went calm.

I am just like my big brother. I am outside of the situation you are in but it does not mean that I do not understand what it is you are going through. But for me I am always going to come and take the higher road. I am going to try and counsel you in calmness, peace and I know sometimes in my heart that I have given you counsel and after you have gotten off the phone you pretty much said: "He just hasn't got a clue." I have a clue, but I am just like my Father. I am not always going to hand you the answer you expect.

(21:50) I have no idea why this came out but I need you to trust me because down the road folks I have told you what some of the future is, it is going to get pretty ugly and I need to know that you trust me in what I say to you and when I give you counsel. You need to know 100% that it is coming from love and not judgment. If you call me and you are struggling and you are embarrassed to share it with me, please let go of your ego. Please let go of your pride because if I were to share with you some of the things that I have done I am pretty sure you wouldn't view me as I am right now. I am just as human as you are. We are all sinners. We all make mistakes. None of us are greater than anybody else.

(22:40) Gives an example of Christ kneeling before another Healer – True humility, true servants. That is why we are here on this earth. Not here to make a name for ourselves. Not here to show everybody in existence that we are better than they are. We are here for the glory and honor of our Heavenly Father. And I know in my heart folks, that is who you are or you wouldn't be on my team and I wouldn't be as blessed as I am with all of you. So when you do call me and share with me the experiences that you are having, I will tell you that I immediately look at our Heavenly Father and I smile and sometimes I cry because some of the things you guys have gone through have not been pleasant. He has tested you through your faith and yet you still keep faithful to Him, you still stay faithful to me and I can't say thank you enough for what you are doing for Him, for me and for everyone who needs our help.

(24:16) It is OUR meeting – I am open to discuss anything that you would like to share or ask.

(24:50 – 39:31) Now Firelight and Lightstar will now share an experience they had together.

(39:40) You are going to find that our Heavenly Father is going to put all of you into these situations where you are battle ready, you'll know exactly what to do and if you have experienced it yet where you wake up in the middle of the night and you are sweating like a pig and yet the ambient temperature in your bedroom is normal, just wait because that means that Michael is training you while you are sleeping. So that when these situations happened, both of them knew exactly what to do. That didn't come because it was an automatic thing, Michael trained you, He is teaching you and on a subconscious level you may not be aware it is happening but your soul is aware of what is going on and this is what you and I have been tasked to do. We are to heal those that are broken and we are to protect everyone that is around us. So congratulations, ladies. Welcome to the training 101. You passed. You're not done just so you know. Thank you for sharing that.

(40:50) General conversation – banter – talk among the Healers....

(44:50) Firelight asks question as to whether they should say "In Father's name I heal you" out loud or just to themselves. Supplanter answers to still say it to themselves for now but that will change. However, if people know exactly who you are, then you can say it out loud.

45:55 –Thank you and good byes...
