Absent:

Before we get started I would like to pause for a moment of silence so we can all remember all of those who lost their lives on this date 14 years ago.

Father and Jesus send you Their love. I give you my peace.

Father said; My dear Team Triland. I welcome Brandon to the team.

Some time has passed since our last meeting and much has changed. Not just in the world but in all of your hearts. Many of you including my Son have been tested, tried and have suffered much. All of this was necessary for the future.

Sometimes when I ponder a test for a soul I weigh whether it would really hurt the soul more than help the soul grow. Why am I sharing this with you, you may ask? Many think I test without really understanding the ramifications of the entire outcome. I do not! I would never hurt a soul intentionally.

Recently I told my Son that my decision to put him through his recent tests hurt me ten time more than it did him because all I could do for him was sit and watch him suffer. Those of you who are parents know how difficult this is to do, but it was necessary for mankind and this team's future.

I know that all of you have been struggling, hurting and questioning much. That is all so "human" of all of you and I am okay with all of you expressing your hearts and emotions to me. This is the bond that keeps all of us close to one another.

I need all of you to meditate more frequently. Spend time with the ones I have given you to help you grow, meaning the archangels. I need all of you to control and contain your emotions and to trust your gut feelings.

If you have not noticed as of late there are fewer battles that you are involved with. Yes, you have had to put down a few demons but nothing like you used to in the past. I have given all of you this time to heal and grow. Plus, when your commander is not himself you and the world feel his sadness. And now my Boy is giving me the stink eye.

Everything is now being set right. My son's heart and soul are healing; the team is healing and becoming stronger. Conviction is what I need to see from all of you! No more doubts! No more second guessing why I chose any of you. I do not make mistakes! I chose all of you because I have already seen your success in carrying out this task. I need you to be strong and just trust Me. I will not fail you and YOU WILL NOT FAIL ME! Always know we love you and are always there with you.

Does anyone have any questions or comments?

We welcome Brandon to the team. He has completed all of my classes. Now he will learn in depth about the chakras. Then I will start his training.

I am sorry for cancelling monthly meeting. Please forgive me. I will never do that again! We will always have a meeting if only to chat and then pray together. I miss all of you very much!

Guardian email - We are now Guardians. We are no longer known as healers. Father will now call us Guardians.

Are you still VETTING your teammates? Some of you have had to replace certain members

Healing Master and Psychic Surgeon – The one will be referred to as Healing Surgeon because they will take on both roles. Plug them into your right hand.

Please do your dailies, and meditate and work with the archangels as Father has asked of all of us.

Two weeks ago Blazar was given info that Satan was planning on attacking the church. Met with Michael and Stotherian, we did a counter attack as well.

Meditate only with cosmic energy. Don't pull up earth energy anymore.

I have an interview Monday at 1:00 PM

Next meeting is on Sunday, October 11 at 5 PM CST.

Prayer –
