*MEDITATION SESSION****

Father said, Hello and welcome. I wanted to first say, I love you all very much. Sometimes you may feel that I am not listening to you and your requests for help. Or that maybe I am being too hard on you with the trials and temptations I allow to test you.

I hear you, I see you and I feel your heart. Every time you open your heart and pour out your agony, pain and suffering, or you do the same on the behalf of a loved one I...HEAR...YOU!

You must understand that I am not mad at you, EVER. I am not punishing you or as My Son Triland has said to me, "Stop torturing me!" I allow these things to test your mettle". Everything is to prepare YOU to be a Guardian and a Firstling. Ah, you have not heard me say that word for a while. I MUST make you stronger. More pliable for the future.

You cannot judge mankind because of the horrible things they are doing. I know some of you would like to shove your finger in their eye! Or punch some sense into them. Please do not do that. It will not change anything. They will also learn in time of the error of their ways.

You are first, My children. Never forget the time I spent building and crafting your soul. When it left Me I let a very small piece of Me go. This is why you are so important to me. All of My children are important to me. You forget that you and I are one, because I am in you. And you carry My life, the life of My Holy Spirit. You are special. Do not let that go to your head.

Why am I sharing this with you now. Because I feel some of you straying away from ME and My Son Triland. He will give you some statistics tonight about the team. You may be surprised. For you veteran Guardians, I say thank you to you for staying the course and supporting My Boy. To you newly elected Guardians I say welcome. Be patient with yourself. Listen to what Triland teaches you. Practice what he give you. Fulfill the tasks I have given. In return I will support and give you everything you will need for the coming years. You...All...Will...Be...Ready! I promise you that! Do not fear the thoughts of; how am I going to do this? When is all of this coming to be? How will I and my family survive what is coming?

Stop now for a moment and think about this. Who in the Bible did I ever give all the knowledge of their tasks upfront. Only One, Jesus. All of mankind in the Bible had to have faith in Me. This is what I am asking of you! Did I fail them in their tasks Did I not step in when I needed to help them. Was I not clear on My instructions to them. Yes I was. I will never forsake you or allow you to fail. That is impossible if you do as I and Triland ask of you.

Now, Triland. He is just as human as you are. Some of you have greater expectations of Him than I do. You seem to have his path figured out. You think he should be doing this and doing that. My Boy is doing what he is supposed to be doing because I have given Him instructions. He too is still learning. He will share with you in time, more. But right now I need you to get back to the basics. More meditation is required from you. Not just once a week. Jesus, HS and I need to spend more "one on one" time with you.

Now maybe you think, "I do not have the time Father. My schedule is so very busy with work, family and church. HUMBUG! I love that character Scrooge! Anyway, you no longer have any valid excuses. If you ask Me I will help you manage your time better. The schedule you currently have was not created by Me. Who created it then? You! If it is not working for you and you are frustrated then change it! Ask for My help. I will give it to you.

Now I need you all to be active. The new Guardians started their first training session yesterday. I am very proud of them. Your gifts will be unlocked as you meditate and come and see Me. HA-HA now you HAVE to make time for ME. Yep, I am a sly One.

I may have been hard on you in the past years and even in this message. That is because I love you and need you ready for what, and when it comes. You will be, I have seen it!

Be you! Reread your Guardian meanings and the traits I have give you. It is now time for the Guardians to rise and be more active. The church will catch wind that Triland is doing his "crazy" work again. I will take care of those in the church who oppose you! I will remove every obstacle or hindrance from your path! My will, will be done. I am tired of man mucking up things. Ha! A very human word, one you all understand.

Some of you have thought in the past and have said to Triland recently, I do not want to hinder Father's plan. That is a bunch of hogwash! I feel so human tonight. Plus I thought I would interject a little humor. I like having fun too.

You have also told Me and Triland that you are not worthy for this position. Has anyone under My leadership on earth ever been worthy? Worthiness happens when you do what I ask of you. Do you understand? Until you make an effort you cannot be worthy. Why? Because through the learning process you gain understanding and confidence. You do not make yourself worthy, I do! Hmmm My Son Triland makes fun of all the songs that say "You are worthy Lord"! Of course I am! Sheesh! I do not need to be reminded.

Anyway, I hope your hearts have been sparked and you feel My love and encouragement. Together we WILL help mankind, we WILL bring home the Bride of Christ and you WILL become worthy to wear YOUR crown of life when I place it on your head. Now be active, I love you!

I will make one more point. Serving Me and mankind should not be a drudgery, it should bring joy to your heart and spark your faith to do more. Now get busy!

Does anyone have any questions, comments, or something they would like to add?
