I give you, my peace.

Our host is Tricous.

*Opening prayer****

Father said: My dear children, a hearty welcome and please accept my love and peace. Many hearts have been troubled over the past month with monetary, physical, and relationship issues. Besides that, your faith has still remained strong. Love and healing are what I will give you in this fellowship.

Some of you feel as though you have been fighting through a personal war and are losing it. Others are depressed and down about the world around them; and feel there is little you can do to change it. Some have come to Me and I have been able to comfort them. All of you, I will now comfort. Please take a deep breath and let go of your pain and worries. I replace them with peace and understanding.

Some of what you are feeling is from Eternity. In some cases, the souls are depressed, feel lost and hopeless. This is what you are attuned to, regardless of you not going there. I have connected your hearts to eternity. Why? Because you can help there. Please go, just go, and stand in a realm with Jesus. You do not need to say anything. Your presence shines love upon each soul you encounter. Please go to the realm of Paradise and visit with your families, they are waiting to hold you and comfort you. Yes, they will comfort you.

This plan of Mine is not just one sided, being that everything comes from the living and the dead take. It is a give and take. Your families have been watching you suffer. Perhaps you have thought of them or have seen them more in the past month than in any other time. I have sent them to you! Embrace their energy, absorb their love and compassion for you. No one understands family better than family. This is my gift to all of you for your service and help.

Now perhaps I should tell you why I sent your family; it is because some of you still have not come to Me. And that is simply fine. I will touch your heart and help you any way I can, MUHAHAHA. If I were evil that would be my laugh because I have plotted to help you.

Do you feel My love? Do you feel My help? Do you know that I do understand your heartaches and worries? Do you know that I can help, heal, and guide you through this part of your life?

Not one of you on this team fellowship is devoid of heartache, pain, suffering and at times grows anxious about the future, not one of you! Please take heart in knowing that. I do not expect my Guardians and children to always be up! To always be positive! To always do the "right" thing. I did not even expect this from Jesus! It is okay to feel down, to feel angry, to be frustrated, to feel overwhelmed, to be disgusted, and to feel lost. I give you permission to feel your emotions. Stop trying to be a perfect robot. Does that make sense? All of you are still a little human even though you are new creatures.

I did not take your hearts and emotions away. If I did, you would act like angels because they do not have a soul. They do not have a piece of My heart inside of them. You do! That is why you are so incredibly special to Me, Jesus, and HS. And yes, Triland too. He does not take any of you for granted. With Derek leaving he felt the sting as Jesus did in His time. Derek chose to leave the team not because of anything anyone did or said. He left based on his own emotions. And I will still bless him and his family.

Triland has been struggling this past month, just like you. Maybe I should not share this with you, but I will. For the past few weeks Triland has come to us and not said a word, but stood there unable to speak his heart, but We heard him! We hear all of you within your own silence. I am opening My arms, and I am surrounding you with a Big Fatherly hug! Feel it now. Yes, Triland was crying the whole time he took my message, what a big baby. Haha!

I will tell you again, feel your emotions, do not ignore them. Let them out. Recently Triland and StarLight decided to write a daily journal again; it has helped both through some tough times. It helps a person to reflect on what they are thinking, feeling and even try to ignore. I would encourage all of you to write a journal. You will be surprised how much better you feel. Yes, it is a form of mediation. Sometimes you need to read your own words to see and understand yourself. That is all that I will share from the personal archives of Tri-Light. I do not want them to be mad at Me.

Please my dear family, always know the Jesus, HS and I are here to help you so that My plan can come to its completion and all of you can come home.
