

God's Law is to love God and to love your neighbor. And that is putting God's law into practice. But then it gets harder. Because in everyday life you can't look up in the Bible what should I do today and right now?

Because God's answer is always the same: Love God, Love your neighbor. And so, you have to think. What should I do now? And the Holy Spirit won't tell you what to do. The Holy Spirit won't decide for you. He says no, no, no, you have to make the decision. But I am going to help you make the decision.

1. Is what you're going to do, going to bring you closer to God or take you away from God?
2. Are you acting out of love for God first?
3. Are you thinking of eternal life first?
4. Would you like someone to do to you what you want to do to your neighbor?
5. Is what you want to do what the Apostle preached?

The Holy Spirit reminds us of Jesus' teaching. But it is up to you, to us, to make the decision.

Here's how to do Jesus' teaching. We have to think it over, make our decision, but let the Holy Spirit guide us.
